

WITHOUT OPPOSITION.

Hon. John T. Heard will represent the New Seventh District in the Next Congress.

The Seventh Congressional District is composed of the counties of Benton, Boone, Greene, Hickory, Howard, Pettis, Polk and Saline.

It is a democratic district and will probably remain so to the end of time. In 1888 the vote was as follows: Democratic, 22,180; republican, 18,681; opposition, 2,011.

There are no factional fights in the district. In fact the very air is redolent with the incense arising from harmony.

The nomination of Hon. John T. Heard was made with a unanimity and enthusiasm rarely equalled in political conventions, and is the forerunner of an overwhelming victory in November.

Mr. Heard first entered congress in 1884, and has served continuously since that time. The one upon which he will soon enter, therefore, will make his fifth term.

At 10 o'clock the convention was called to order in the criminal court room by Hon. George H. Bughner, of Fayette, chairman of the central committee, who introduced Col. T. C. Love of Green county, as temporary chairman. That gentleman thanked the convention for the honor, and made a short but spirited address.

Thos. S. Carter, of Boone county, was chosen as the temporary secretary.

On motion of T. S. Carter the roll of counties was called for the appointment of committees resulting as follows:

COMMITTEE ON CREDENTIALS

The committee on permanent organization and order of business reported as follows:

1. That the temporary organization be made permanent.

2. Nominations for candidates for congress for Seventh district.
3. That upon call of roll of the counties, each county name its congressional committee.
4. Report of committee on resolutions.
5. Adjournment.

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, the Hon. John T. Heard, representative in congress from the Seventh district of Missouri has uniformly labored in behalf of the interests of the masses of the people and has persistently opposed all class legislation, and has steadfastly fought the idea and theory that a free and popular government has a right to foster and build up by any scheme of taxation or otherwise the special interests of a chosen few as against the masses and whereas in all things and at all times the Hon. John T. Heard has ever proven faithful to his constituency, therefore—

Be it resolved, That the democracy of the Seventh Congressional district, in convention duly assembled, do unanimously endorse the official action of the Hon. John T. Heard, and do recommend him to the electors of the district as a true and tried representative of the people, worthy of their continued trust and confidence.

BASOR:AC

The roll of counties on nominations for Congress being called, W. T. Atkinson, in a very neat speech, placed Hon. John T. Heard in nomination.

John S. Fleming of Pettis county, briefly seconded the nomination. Saline county, through John G. Miller, also seconded Mr. Heard's nomination.

On motion of E. T. O'Rear of Saline, the rules were suspended and the nomination was made by acclamation. The chair appointed T. S. Carter of Boone, E. T. O'Rear of Saline and A. A. Johnson of Boone, a committee to notify Mr. Heard of his nomination.

The following, offered by Mr. J. T. Montgomery, of Pettis, went through with a rush:

On behalf of the former counties in this congressional district, would offer the following:

Whereas, the great and prosperous county of Greene has been recently added to this, the Seventh district, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, as delegates representing the former counties, do hereby welcome our friend and neighbor, Greene county, and extend the right hand of fellowship to all of their people, provided they carry the county for the nominee of this convention.

The counties each reported as follows a member of the

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Boone—Thos. Carter.
Benton—H. T. Patton.
Polk—R. B. Beck.
Howard—J. O. Wynn.
Saline—J. R. Edwards.
Pettis—T. F. Mitchum.
Greene—E. P. Miller.

Hickory county was not represented in the convention, as the delegates failed to arrive.

After the adjournment of the convention, the new central committee met and elected Thos. F. Mitchum, of Pettis as chairman, and T. B. Beck, of Polk as secretary.

The Secret of his Wealth.

A millionaire said "the secret of my wealth" is in the word, S-A-V-E; and the secret of my health is in the word, S-A-G-E. By this last he meant Dr. Sage, whose Catarrh Remedy cured him of one of the worst cases of Catarrh, and thereby saved him from much suffering and premature death, enabling him to make his millions, and enjoy life. The cures made by this medicine are simply wonderful.

"What has become of the big man who used to beat the bass drum?", asked the private of the drum-major. "He quit us about three months ago." "Good drummer, too, wasn't he?" "Yes, very good; but he got so fat that when he marched he couldn't hit the drum in the middle."—Chicago News.

A NEGRO FIEND.

Assaults a Young Girl at Lamonte.

He Made His Escape. But Will Soon Be Captured—The Posse in Pursuit.

LAMONTE, Mo., June 8th, [Special.]—About one hundred and fifty men are now in pursuit of the negro, Geo. Lawless, who committed an assault upon Miss Emma Dump, the fifteen year old daughter of Peter Dump, living six miles south of this place. As near as can be learned the fiend has not yet been caught, but the pursuing party entertain the hope that he will be captured before night, as they now have him located. Feeling is running high and intense excitement prevails. If caught he will be speedily dealt with.

The outrage was committed at the home of Peter Dump, a respectable farmer, about daylight yesterday morning. The perpetrator of the outrage, George Lawless, has for some two or three weeks been in the employ of Mr. Dump, as a farm hand. Yesterday morning Mr. Dump was attracted by cries issuing from his daughter's room. Picking up an axe, the father rushed to the door and burst it open, and found Geo. Lawless making an assault upon his daughter.

Mr. Dump rushed at the fiend with axe uplifted and struck at him, the axe grazing his head. The negro fled and nothing has been heard of him since, save that he was seen running west through an oat field early this morning, with the posse about thirty minutes in the rear.

THE NEGRO RAPIST.

Lamonte, Mo., June 9.—(Special.)—It is reported here that the search for Lawless, the negro rapist, has been abandoned and the searching party returned home, all hope of finding the culprit being given up for the present.

Another report says that the negro was captured last night and quietly put out of the way. The last report has not been verified.

USED A RAZOR.

Lorenzo Locklin Attempted to Take His Own Life.

Lorenzo Locklin, aged 17 years, a son of George Locklin, conductor on the Missouri Pacific railway, says the Nevada Democrat, made a desperate attempt to end his life Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock by cutting his throat with a razor.

The news quickly spread and it was found that the boy was yet alive and attended by Drs. Wilson, Atkinson and Stanhope. The deadly pallor of the boy's face evidenced that he had lost considerable blood from the wound in his throat, which extended some four inches.

The distressed mother and father of the unfortunate boy were so shocked by the sad occurrence that they were averse to talking about the matter, hence the press representatives did not urge it. However from Mrs. J. H. Oswald, a neighbor lady, it was learned that this morning a little brother of Lorenzo went into an outbuilding in the back yard and found Lorenzo with his head drooping upon his breast, and immediately gave the alarm. The boy's mother and Mrs. Oswald carried him into the house. Lorenzo had borrowed a razor from David Burdick, a neighbor boy, with which he cut his throat. When found he was in a fainting condition and lying upon his left side.

Lorenzo has been an invalid, or more properly speaking a cripple, since his birth. He attended public school and Prof. Hawkins says he is a very bright boy. The sad occurrence this morning was a great shock to the family.

What caused the boy to commit such a rash act is hard to determine. However from what is learned it is probable that being of a melancholy disposition he did so in an impulsive moment.

Dr. Atkinson reports that the wound is bad, dangerous, but not absolutely nor necessarily mortal.

PENSIONS.

All persons having claims for pensions, back pay and bounty and those wanting certificates and those marked as deserters, would do well to call on tempt to make money out of such deposits.

The system will soon be remedied as the different Bankers Associations over the country have it under consideration and have discussed it, and they have all come to the conclusion that a remedy must be effected; that the giving of so many credits on checks and drafts create fictitious balances which is not good banking, and that it cannot stand close scrutiny.

4th class: Drafts drawn in favor of wholesale merchants and others on large commercial points against balances to pay bills and obligations. This class is so simple that it needs no discussion and is only named to complete the subject.

—To John Jones, who owes past due paper: The president wants to see you in the bank room of the bank.

—The banquet to-morrow night at the Sicer promises to be one of the grandest affairs of the kind ever held in Sedalia.

—This is the second annual convention of the Missouri Bankers' association. To Mr. John Caro Russell, of St. Louis, is due the credit of its organization.

—W. J. Anderson, the popular cashier of the Kansas City National bank, is among the visitors, and has been assigned a prominent part on the programme.

—A. H. Waite, Esq., cashier First National bank of Joplin, arrived this morning and looks fresh as a boy of twenty, but when it comes to banking he is an "old salt."

—Chas. S. Warner, Esq., cashier of the Chemical National bank, St. Louis, is attending the convention. He is a young man of advanced business ideas and is fast forging his way to the front among the financiers of the country.

—H. P. Farris, representing the Artesian hotel at Clinton, is soliciting the members of the association to hold their next meeting in that city. It is an honor, for the attainment of which, the Clintonians are very anxious.

—R. L. Todd, Esq., of Columbia, Mo., is probably the oldest banker at the convention. He is an experienced financier and on his shoulders rests a well balanced head. He is opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

—A prominent figure among the bankers to-day in Sedalia is D. W. Malcomb of Rolla, Mo. Mr. Malcomb has two banks under his charge, one at Rolla, Mo., and the other at Houston, Texas county. He is a conservative banker and in the vigor of manhood.

—Jno. S. Marmaduke, a young banker, assistant cashier in St. Joe is in the city. He will be at the reception to-night and the young ladies will please not pay him too much attention for he is a married man. The BAZOO welcomes him to Sedalia, the banner town of the state.

—C. W. Rubey, cashier Laclede county bank, Lebanon, Mo., a native Missourian, born in Cooper county, is 55 years old, has resided in Missouri all his life, has been engaged in mercantile pursuits since 1854, organized Laclede county bank in 1889 a charter member of the organization.

—One of the veterans of the banking business of Missouri is in Sedalia to-day in the person of H. D. H. Moss, of Paris, Mo. Mr. Moss is well advanced in years but retains great vigor and his ambitions and anxieties are still great for Missouri, her material interests and the welfare of her good people.

—John Caro Russell was born in Texas, in which state he was in the banking business for eight years, part of the time president of the First National Bank of Terrell Texas. A little over two years ago he organized the National Bank of the Republic at St. Louis and became its cashier, a position he still holds.

—John A. Reedy, Esq., formerly of Sedalia, but now a banker in Springfield, Mo., is in the city mingling with the bankers and renewing acquaintances with Sedalia. John was a lawyer, and twenty-two years ago had an office in a wooden building on the corner of Osage and Main streets, where the wine hall now stands.

—We've come from old Missouri, a hundred miles or more, And for business and for pleasure we're in it mighty shore; For Sedalia has assured us in that whole-souled way of hers That the earth is ours for a while and there's not a thing deterring From our pointin' red as crimson—tho' now and then they shout "But the g-b-b-e-e-s may git ye."

—The magnificent and spacious court room was beautifully and artistically decorated. Around the walls were bright bunting, the national colors and Chinese globes. Against the wall, behind the speaker's stand, is placed a large portrait of Washington in the center of a star, the points of which represent the stars and stripes. The most elaborate and beautiful decoration is in the way of exquisite potted plants and fragrant flowers, within the bar and surrounding the judge's stand.

—Edward A. Temple vice president for the First National bank Chariton Iowa Director of the Des Moines Springs bank and president of the Bankers Life association of Des Moines is in the city attending the Bankers Convention and while here will be glad to confer with bankers who wish information relative to his popular system of Life Insurance. The First and Third National banks of this city are pleased with the plans and do not hesitate to speak highly of the association.

—The visiting bankers are the very soul of sociability.

—Are you in the habit of returning checks—you know.

—The formal reception will occur to-night at the Sicer.

—Robert Robyn seems to be the humorist of the convention.

—Visiting bankers from other states are here in considerable numbers.

—It is the largest attendance of any convention yet held by the bankers.

—The Sedalia Military Band will furnish music for the banker's reception to-night.

The bankers are an honor-y lot They honor checks you know, They mostly squarely deal—if not To Canada they go.

—Paul F. Thornton, Esq., a well known banker of Nevada, is attending the convention.

—What's my balance?

—Does your account show "red ink?"

—The visiting bankers are the very soul of sociability.

—Are you
